

Acta Endocrinologica

Instructions for Reviewers

Please follow /check the following items:

The abstract is enough informative.

Keywords are significant.

Introduction presents the background of the subject.

- The study addresses an important scientific issue.
- The study is original.

Material and methods

- Ethical approvals are accomplished. Methods should provide enough data to allow reproduction of the experiments. Providers of all important reagents /equipments used in the study should be specified.
- The informed consent of the patient was obtained
- The study did test the authors' hypothesis.
- The sample size was adequate / too small.
- The study was adequately controlled.

Results:

- The statistical analysis was correct / appropriate.
- The authors drew justified conclusions from their data.

Discussion

- The comments are made with adequate references and focused on the subject of the paper.

References should follow instructions for authors.

English language is adequate for scientific medical papers.

The review process is entirely confidential. The name of the referee and any identification tag possible related is kept confidential. The editorial secretary will transmitt the comments to the authors.

Thank you for your help to “Acta Endocrinologica”.